Pair Arraigned

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Daniel LaRue, 17, and Wayne Clark, 17, both of Grand Haven, were assessed fines and costs of $24.90 each Saturday when they were arraigned before Justice Lawrence De Witt on charges of entering without breaking. The pair allegedly entered a cottage at the Youth Camp at Pottawatomie March 29 along with a 16-old juvenile who was referred to probate court. The arrests were in connection with a wide-scale investigation into teenage drinking parties. It was reported that LaRue paid fine and costs but Clark was committed to jail for 10 days.

Newspaper Circulation In State Hits New High

LANSING — Michigan newspaper circulation has reached an all-time high of 3,124,609, according to a compilation of figures from the 1958 Michigan Press Association Newspaper Directory and Ratebook.

The total includes 2,394,219 circulation for the state's 57 daily newspapers and 730,390 for the 301 weeklies listed. Last year's figures were 2,370,826 daily.

The United States consumes about one-half of the world's coffee supply.

The Colorado desert, in southeastern California and extending into Arizona, has no connection with the state of Colorado. It was named by Prof. W. P. Blake, a geologist. The state of Colorado was then not in existence.

Traverse City Man Shoots Self

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. —An elderly Traverse City man died of a self-inflicted gun shot wound Sunday after asking a police officer to lend him a gun for the suicide.

Patrolman John McCluskey said Leander Muncy, 84, a former pool hall operator, called him to his home to seek aid in gaining admission to the Grand Traverse County Hospital. Police said Muncy had been in poor health.

During the conversation Muncy asked to borrow the officer's service revolved to commit suicide, but McCluskey said he left the elderly man, convinced he had dropped his suicide plan.

The sheriff's officer later received a report that Muncy used his own .32 caliber revolver to kill himself. County Coroner Dr. Warren Cline ruled Muncy's death a suicide.
