Petrine was born October 13, 1858 at Havig Spind and Christened October 24, 1858 at Spind.

Thomas Edward Thompson was born in Norway in 1879. It is believed his father died at sea before his brother, Tarral Theodore, was born. After their father's death, their mother, Petrine Gesine (Gabrielsen) Thompson immigrated to America. During the voyage she met a childhood friend, also from Norway, Bernt Sakarias Johnson. Gesine and Bernt Johnson were married in Whitehall, Michigan, on November 8, 1885.

Edward and Theodore Thompson were left behind in Norway with their grandmother until Gesine could send for them. The two boys arrived in America in approximately 1887, joining the Johnson family in Whitehall. Shortly thereafter the family moved "up north" and settled on South Manitou Island.
